REVA Swings for Cancer Research

Fort Lauderdale, FL. – REVA’s commitment to health extends well beyond the tarmac. North America’s largest air ambulance company has for the 6th consecutive year provided support to the Eric H. Parker family golf tournament.

The tournament held annually at Exeter Country Club in Exeter, R.I., raises money to help families pay for cancer treatments at Massachusetts General Hospital. One of the world’s most distinguished academic medical centers, Massachusetts General Cancer Center is among the leading cancer care providers in the United States.

REVA’s connection to the family fundraiser dates back years and includes not only an annual corporate pledge, but tournament involvement by individuals within the company. The effort has earned a well done from company executives and grateful acknowledgement from the family.
